

Good Friday Agreement 2018

Background

The National Library's web archive has been collecting Irish websites since 2011. Since then the NLI have developed many collections that reflect the Irish political, cultural and creative online life. The NLI have also sought to reflect commemorations of events that take place. In 2018, the NLI undertook a crawl to mark the 20th anniversary of the Good Friday Agreement.

Site selection

Site selection was carried out by Della Keating, Joanna Finegan and Maria Ryan

Crawl parameters

Eight websites in total were included in this crawl. This included two twitter accounts.

Scope and content of resulting collection

- The websites of online news outlets, The Journal and Tuairisc were captured.
- The websites of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Merrion Street were also included to represent the Irish government response.
- In addition, the Twitter account of Agreement 20 and the Belfast Agreement were included to capture a representation of the commentary on Twitter.
- The websites of the Centre for Cross Border Studies and the British Irish Council were included to represent cross border initiatives.
