INTRODUCTION

The Family

The Monck family is descended from the le Moyne family of Powderidge (Potheridge) in Devonshire, England. By a series of opportunistic intermarriages with aristocratic families, they achieved prominence and wealth both in England and Ireland. Thomas le Moyne married Frances, the daughter and co-heir of Arthur Plantaganet, 1st and last Viscount Lisle of the 1523 creation, whose maternal ancestors included the 1st Earl of Shrewsbury and Waterford and Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick and 1st Earl of Aumale. Their grandson, Thomas Monck was knighted in 1603 and his descendant George Monck, was created 1st Duke of Albemarle in 1660 by Charles II arising from his services to the monarchy in bringing about the Restoration. The Irish connection of the Monck family dates from 1627 when Charles Monck was appointed Joint Surveyor General of Customs in Ireland. He purchased an estate in county Westmeath and represented Coleraine in parliament. Their son, Henry Monck, married Sarah, the daughter and heiress of Sir Thomas Stanley of Grange Gorman, Dublin, whose estates became vested in the second son of the marriage, Charles Monck. The influence of the Stanley family on the Monck family is evident from the fact that almost all of those who held the title of Viscount Monck have the name Stanley. Charles Monck, in turn married Agneta Hitchcock, heiress to her brother's estate of Charleville in county Wicklow. In 1797 their grandson, Charles Stanley Monck, was created Baron Monck of Ballytrammon, county Wexford and later in 1801 Viscount Monck of Ballytrammon. His elder son, Henry Stanley Monck became 1st Earl of Rathdowne in 1822, but having nine daughters the title expired at his death in 1843. The 2nd Viscount's successor was his brother Charles Joseph Kelly Monck, who in turn passed the title to his son Charles Stanley Monck. The 4th Viscount further strengthened his claim to the title by marrying his cousin Lady Elizabeth Louise Mary Monck, daughter of the 2nd Viscount. Charles Stanley Monck, 4th Viscount played an important role in the administration of both Ireland and the United States and Canada. He became Commissioner of the Church Temporalities in Ireland, and was Governor-General of British America and Canada [see Collection List No. 5 for correspondence relating to his Governor-Generalship of Canada, 1861-1868]. The present family representative is Charles Stanley Monck, 7th Viscount Monck

The Papers

This collection of Monck papers (Accession number 1478) was acquired from Henry Wyndham Stanley Monck, 6th Viscount Monck in 1954. The vast majority of the papers in this small collection are those relating to the Monck estates in counties Dublin, Kilkenny, Westmeath, Wexford and Wicklow. These amounted to over 14,000 acres valued at almost £10,500 in The Great Landowners of Great Britain and Ireland (1883, reprinted 1971). Many of these are deeds in the form of conveyances and lease, although there are several maps and surveys and some legal papers. Part of the estate papers relate to the estates of the Stanley family from the marriage of Henry Monck with Sarah Stanley, heiress to her father's estate at Grange Gorman in Dublin, and also the estates of John Henry Scott, 3rd Earl of Clonmell, whose daughter, Lady Edith Caroline Sophia Scott married Henry Power Charles Stanley Monck, 5th Viscount Monck. The estate material is arranged chronologically by county. The family papers comprise a smaller part of the collection and consists mainly of marriage and testamentary material, with some correspondence. Several of the documents in this section relate to the Symth family of Barbavilla in county Westmeath, again arising from the short marriage of Emily Monck, daughter of the 2nd Viscount with William Barlow Smyth in 1837. Again the papers are arranged chronologically.

Bibliographical References

The Library has received a number of accessions of Monck Papers, some of which are listed in Manuscript Sources for the History of Irish Civilisation, vol. 3, ed. Richard J. Hayes (1965), p. 402 and Manuscript Sources for the History of Irish Civilisation-First Supplement 1965-1975, vol. 1, ed. Richard J. Hayes (1979), pp. 487-488. One invaluable source is a complete genealogy of the Monck family showing all branches of the family from c. 1066 to 1811 (G.O. Ms. 168, pp. 118-123). A part of the collection was listed by Sir John Ainsworth in 'National Library Reports on Private Collections', numbers 107 (interim report) and 474. Further sources for the study of the Governor-Generalship of Canada of Charles Stanley Monck, 4th Viscount Monck are listed in Collection List No. 5.
