Background reasons for collection

The National Library of Ireland is synonymous with Genealogy in Ireland. Collections like the parish registers and newspaper archive have long served as resources to those researching their Irish ancestry. Given this longstanding relationship, genealogical websites were selected and archived for inclusion in the NLI's web archive since 2012.

Site selection

Catherine Ryan, Siobhan O Donovan, Della Murphy and Joanna Finegan have been involved in site selection over the years. All were or are members of staff of the NLI.

Crawl parameters

Thirteen websites have been archived since 2012.

Scope and content of resulting collection

- The collection began in 2012 when nine websites were selected for inclusion.
- In 2015, four websites were archived to mark the National Library's parish registers online launch.
